

PART III

Failed Kings in a United Kingdom

A Chronicle of Redemption - A Message Series by David Platt

Dr. David Platt

Chapter 15: FATHER TO THE FATHERLESS

Psalm 10

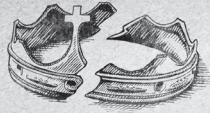

Explanation of this Psalm...

- The way of the wicked...
 - They seek their own selfish _____.
 - They ignore the one true _____.
 - They trust in worldly _____.
 - They live with deadly _____.
 - Their _____ are sinful.
 - Their _____ are evil.
 - They _____ the needy of the world.
 - They _____ the justice of their God.
- The God of the weak...
 - He sees their _____.
 - He hears their _____.
 - He brings them _____.
 - _____ will reign.
 - _____ will come.

Implications of this Psalm...

- The cross is the solution to _____ crisis.
 - We are _____.
 - We are _____.
 - At the cross...
 - God judges our _____.
 - God makes us His _____.
- The cross is the solution to the _____ crisis.
 - In light of our wickedness...
 - We must recognize that we are not _____.
 - We must realize that we are the _____.
 - In light of our weakness...
 - We now _____ their need.
 - We now _____ their cries.
 - We now _____ them hope.
 - As _____ ...
 - As a _____ ...

“Together, we will spur one another on to love and good deeds. We will meet with one another consistently, pray for one another regularly, and serve one another selflessly. We will share each other’s joys and bear each other’s burdens. We will edify one another with our speech and encourage one another with our example. We will humbly and gently confront one another and receive correction from one another in accordance with a New Testament understanding of church discipline and restoration. We will give cheerfully and generously to the support of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel through all nations.”

PART III

Failed Kings in a United Kingdom

A Chronicle of Redemption - A Message Series by David Platt

Dr. David Platt

Chapter 15: FATHER TO THE FATHERLESS

Psalm 10

Explanation of this Psalm...

- The way of the wicked...
 - They seek their own selfish gain.
 - They ignore the one true God.
 - They trust in worldly prosperity.
 - They live with deadly pride.
 - Their words are sinful.
 - Their works are evil.
 - They oppress the needy of the world.
 - They disregard the justice of their God.
- The God of the weak...
 - He sees their need.
 - He hears their cry.
 - He brings them hope.
 - Justice will reign.
 - Deliverance will come.

Implications of this Psalm...

- The cross is the solution to our crisis.
 - We are wicked.
 - We are weak.
 - At the cross...
 - God judges our sins.
 - God makes us His sons.
- The cross is the solution to the orphan crisis.
 - In light of our wickedness...
 - We must recognize that we are not rescuers.
 - We must realize that we are the rescued.
 - In light of our weakness...
 - We now see their need.
 - We now hear their cries.
 - We now bring them hope.
 - As families...
 - As a faith family...

“Together, we will spur one another on to love and good deeds. We will meet with one another consistently, pray for one another regularly, and serve one another selflessly. We will share each other’s joys and bear each other’s burdens. We will edify one another with our speech and encourage one another with our example. We will humbly and gently confront one another and receive correction from one another in accordance with a New Testament understanding of church discipline and restoration. We will give cheerfully and generously to the support of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel through all nations.”